

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

1 Perdita Ross specializes in custom artwork, display design, and 3D interactive blacklight art events. Harmony is a paper collage made from painted recycled cardboard boxes. For more information about Perdita, visit www.perditaross.com or follow her on Instagram @perditaross and perditaross.blogspot.com.

2 Charlotte Spinks is a rising junior at Lincoln High School where she enjoys participating in band and Latin Club. Outside of school, Charlotte creates traditional, digital, and 3D art. Her work, HIV(E)OLTAGE, is inspired by her father's time as a beekeeper and the black bears that inhabit the nearby Apalachicola National Forest.

3 Rosa Cruz's Lake Nature featured at Apalachee Regional Park was inspired by Leon County's abundant lakes, flora, fauna and colorful sunsets. Follow Rosa on Instagram @cruglezstermannstudio or visit her web site at cruglezstermann.com.

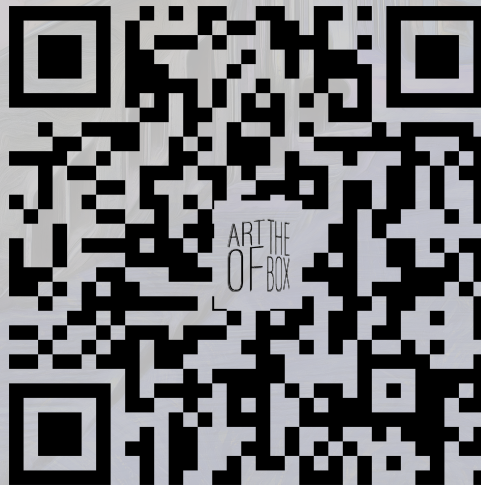

4 Stephanie Roche is a local Tallahassee artist and illustrator who loves where she lives and finds inspiration in the beauty around her. You can view Stephanie's creations, including surface pattern designs, at stephrochedesign.com or on Instagram @stephrochedesign.

5 Joy Green loves to paint colorful, whimsical paintings. She paints everything from cats, horses, frogs, and other critters to flowers, trees, and more. People often comment that Joy's art makes them smile and that makes Joy smile. You can follow Joy on Instagram @joy_a_green, on Facebook at Whimsicals by Joy-Joy Green, or visit whimsicalsbyjoy.com.

6 Robin Washington's style infuses realism with comic line art that creates a heavily layered surrealist appearance with ageless soul. Robin Washington is a beautiful amalgam of various arts and influences she has engaged throughout her life. You can follow Robin on Instagram @Waternotesbaby or visit waternotesbaby.com.
