ABOUT THE ARTISTS

1. Sarah Painter is an artist and educator based in North Florida. When she's not teaching high school art, she is painting. Painter specializes in socially engaged, site-specific mural works. She has worked with public and private entities to paint throughout Tallahassee, across the United States, and internationally. Follow Sarah on Instagram @sarahpainter.

2. Mary Maurer is an environmental artist. She wants to use her art to promote ocean and endangered species conservation. Mary's Blue Planet Love celebrates Florida's diverse ecology and Tallahassee's outdoor spaces. Check out her Instagram page at @annmaurer_fineart.

3. Christopher Barnhart is a dynamic one-of-a-kind freestyle artist specializing in multi-dimensional artwork. Barnhart's Infinite Possibilities demonstrates his talent in mixed media artwork. You can follow Christopher on Facebook at Christopher Barnhart or on Instagram @razorartwork.

4. Dan Taylor's Springtime Tallahassee is meant to evoke fond memories of our local parks—crowded with families and folks, young and old, under the canopy enjoying all our community has to offer. Follow him on Instagram @dantaylorartist.

5. Robin Washington's style infuses realism with comic line art that creates a heavily layered surrealist appearance with ageless soul. You can follow Robin on Instagram @Waternotesbaby or visit waternotesbaby.com.

6. The artist, Debortina, is the creative collaboration of Debo Groover and Tina Torrance using painted surfaces and polymer clay to create beautifully unique collages. Deb and Tina can be reached through their website www.debortinastudio.com.

7. Joy Green loves to paint colorful, whimsical paintings. She paints everything from cats, horses, frogs, and other critters to flowers, trees, and more. People often comment that Joy's art makes them smile and that makes Joy smile. You can follow Joy on Instagram @joy_a_green, on Facebook at Whimsicals by Joy-Joy Green, or visit whimsicalsbyjoy.com.
